GUIDE TO THE INSCRIPTIONS

Surnames: There is an entry for each surname included in the columns for 'inscription' and 'comments'. Ex: For grave 377, which you see below, there are 2 entries for Elizabeth: 1 under 'PAIN', her married name, and 1 under 'OLLIVE', her maiden name. The spelling of surnames may vary, as illustrated here by 'Pain' (Elizabeth and Thomas) and 'Paine' (Thomas).

First names are listed in the order in which they appear in the entry. Mrs Owlett numbered identical first names within an entry. For example, 'Mary I' would be the first 'Mary' listed. 'Mary II' could, however, be either a second family member named 'Mary', or the second reference to 'Mary I'.

Inscription: This is the text on the marker as recorded in her notebooks by Mrs Owlett.

Editor's comments appear in dark grey italic type.

PAIN Elizabeth Thomas	337	Mrs Elizabeth PAIN of this Town who died July 17th 1808 aged 58 years.	(She was the sister of Thomas OLLIVE above). (Wife of Thomas Pain, author of 'The Rights of Man', 'The Age of Reason' etc.)	Click here to read Thomas Paine's Deed of Legal Separation from his wife, Elizabeth Ollive, signed a few months before his departure for America. See also entry 335 for Thomas OLLIVE. [22 January 2013]	435

Grave numbers refer to those on the churchyard map used by Mrs Owlett.

Mrs Owlett's comments appear in red, just as she wrote them in her notebooks. Sometimes she inserted them into the text of the inscription, rather than at the end.

Red numbers: Mrs Owlett often wrote numbers in red ink below the grave numbers. We do not know their significance, but have included them here to preserve the information.

Also of Grace BARHAM 3rd daughter of the above, who died April 19th 1828 aged 66 years.		Mid-Kent Marriages : The name of Peter's wife is given as 'Bethula [sic] BRISSENDEN'. They were married 11 December 1755 in Cranbrook [5 Feb 2013]
AKHURST Sarah	677	Emily DAVIES. Born August 4th 1815 Died September 28th 1898 I look for the Lord. My soul doth wait for him. Also Eliza DAVIES. Born March 17th 1812. Died May 3rd 1889. Until the day dawn. Also Sarah DAVIES Born February 4th 1814. Died March 25th 1894.	(Rev. Daniel William DAVIES and Louisa GREENALL married January 2nd 1804. Charles Greenall DAVIES of Rev. Daniel & Louisa, Born November 14th 1804. Louisa DAVIES Buried April 13th 1808 aged 22 yrs. Daniel Williams DAVIES and Sarah AKHURST Married June 19th 1809.)
ALLAN (ALLEN) John Lloyd James William Rev. John Lloyd Anne	580	In Memory of John Lloyd ALLAN and James William ALLAN, sons of the Rev. John Lloyd and Anne ALLAN, Born Rochester April 18th 1851. Died John Lloyd January 24th and James William January 27th 1852. They are without doubt before the Throne of God.		The Allan's twin sons died in infancy, the year after Rev. Allan became Headmaster of Cranbrook School . (NB: Mrs Owlett used 'ALLEN' for graves 580 and 581; however the correct spelling is 'ALLAN'.)
ALLAN (ALLEN) Rev. John Lloyd Annie	581	Placed by his sorrowing and affectionate pupils. Here lieth John Lloyd ALLAN, Clerk, M.A., Headmaster of Q.E.G.S. Cranbrook. Born August 30th 1817. Died March 20 1866. Also Annie, his wife, who died at Kensington January 9th 1892 having survived him for nearly 26 years. I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.	Mrs Owlett has written '2' above the '0' in the date of John ALLAN's date of death.	Two of the Houses at Cranbrook School , Allan Boys and Allan Girls, are named after Rev. ALLAN, recognizing his contribution as Headmaster from 1851 to 1866 in re-establishing the reputation and fortunes of the School. He is buried under a yew tree in the churchyard. 'Q.E.G.S.' is the abbreviation for Queen Elizabeth Grammar School. (NB: The correct spelling is 'ALLAN', not 'ALLEN'.)
ALLEN Henry	548	In affectionate Remembrance of Henry ALLEN who died November 7th 1874 aged 64 years. Christ is all and in all.

BEALE Richard Anne	513a	Here lieth the body of John COOKE of Swifts in this Parish, who died April 3rd 1741 age 68 years. Leaving issue ? Sons & ? daughters.	JA comments: NB: This marker is 513a on the map. Tarbutt states that in the register, the recorder wrote he was buried '1741. April 10,' and in Latin but translated by Tarbutt: 'A good man, Desirable to emulate for his laudable examples of piety and beneficence.]' [2 nd lecture, page 54] According to a link on the Fadedgenes website, John married ELLEN, surname unknown. He was 'born Abt 1674 in Harefield (Middx)' An interesting source, ' Letters from Home ', supplies Ellen's maiden name, 'Gibbs'. The site shows a letter written in the early 1800s concerning the tenancy of a farm. A website visitor read the letter and provided the following information: 'By sheer chance I came across your note on a letter written to Richard Beale at River Hall Biddenden by a Mr Austen of Swifts in Cranbrook. I recognized	the place name as my Cooke ancestors lived there from the second half of the 17th century. There was a Cooke - Beale connection when Anne Cooke daughter of John Cooke & Ellen Gibbs , of Great Swifts married Richard Beale on 18 March 1741. Ann, a daughter of John Cooke and Ellen, his wife, married on 18th March 1741/2, Richard Beale of Biddensden, Esq. which Richard was born 19 October 1717 and died 6 November 1786. Anne died 6 December 1761...'. John Cooke's will is available from the National Archives website (for a fee): One of John Cooke's sons was a Sheriff of Kent in 1745 – see ' Sheriffs in the time of King George II '. (All sources: 9 Dec 2012.) 'Ellen' and 'Anne' have been added to the first names, and BEALE and GIBBS to the surnames.]

BLIGH [?] Margaret Henry	23	In Memory of Margaret, wife of Henry BLIGH of this Parish, who departed this life November 30th 1701 aged 80 years .	(See 39) (Henry LEIGH, Sadler, and Margaret WOOLLET Married Sep 2 1748 by Licence. Margaret LEIGH, wife of Henry, Sadler, Buried Dec 6 1764.	1) 'See entry 39' --relates to the LEIGHs. Mrs Owlett seems to be comparing dates and names, and is puzzled by some discrepancy. Possibly whether 'BLIGH' is really 'LEIGH'? 2) 'BLIGH' was omitted on the original index, so I have inserted it into the 'B' section of the spreadsheet. To cover discrepancies, grave 23 is listed under both 'Bligh' and 'Leigh', as well as WOOLLETT, Margaret. Given the date of death, it is probable that the marker had deteriorated and could not easily be read..

CLARK Edmund John John Elizabeth	1	In Memory of Edmund John CLARK, M.D. one of the Few Enterprising Travellers who have succeeded in ascending to the Summit of Mont Blanc. He was the only son of John CLARK and Elizabeth his wife and departed this life March 24th 1836 Aged 37 years. Also of the above John CLARK whose remains are interred at the East of this. He died June 20 1849 Aged 81 years.	From the Alpine Journal 1963: EDMUND JOHN CLARK : 'Additional data supplement my article 'Edmund John Clark, M.D.' in A.J. 59: 264. The date of his death was uncertain but was given as 1841, this being the last year in which his name was carried in the membership list of the Linnean Society. However, the footnote in A.J. 50.264 was at least correct in saying that he was dead in 1838. Recently Sir Claude Elliott sent to Mr. Dangar a book of newspaper cuttings among which was an article entitled 'Mont Blanc Sixty Years Ago', from All the Year Round (of which Charles Dickens was editor) for March 13, 1886.	This, among other information, records the finding of Clark's tombstone in the churchyard of Cranbrook, Kent, and gives the inscription thereon: 'In memory of Edmund John Clark, M.D., one of the few enterprising travellers who have ascended to the summit of Mont Blanc. He was the only son of Mr. John Clark and Elizabeth his wife, and departed this life March 24th, 1836, aged 37 years.' The date of his death must, therefore, be resolved in favour of this inscription. -- J. MONROE THORINGTON.[January 2013] [This text has been carried across 2 columns to save space. JA]	419

July 25th 1808 aged 42 years.	Mrs Owlett has written '15' above '42' years.	Samuel Dobell describes William's age as '15' rather than '42' in his 'Miscellaneous Pieces in Prose and Poetry', available as a free e-book. Dobell precedes a poem he wrote on the occasion with this account: 'His death was occasioned by an accident which occurred in the morning. The third division of the regiment was on its march from Cranbrook to Maidstone. By desire of a senior officer, Clarkson was mounted on that officer's horse, which, being very spirited, ran away. Clarkson fell entangled in the stirrups and was dragged a considerable distance. When taken up, he was so much lacerated that he soon expired; and was buried on the following day in the churchyard, Cranbrook, where a stone is erected to his memory.' COOKE John Ellen Ann	513a	Here lieth the body of John COOKE of Swifts in this Parish, who died April 3rd 1741 age 68 years. Leaving issue ? Sons & ? daughters.	JA comments: NB: This marker is 513a on the map. Tarbutt states that in the register, the recorder wrote he was buried '1741. April 10,' and in Latin but translated by Tarbutt: 'A good man, Desirable to emulate for his laudable examples of piety and beneficence.]' [2 nd lecture, page 54] According to a link on the Fadedgenes website, John married ELLEN, surname unknown. He was 'born Abt 1674 in Harefield (Middx)' An interesting source, ' Letters from Home ', supplies Ellen's maiden name, 'Gibbs'. The site shows a letter written in the early 1800s concerning the tenancy of a farm. A website visitor read the letter and provided the following information: 'By sheer chance I came across your note on a letter written to Richard Beale at River Hall Biddenden by a Mr Austen of Swifts in Cranbrook. I recognized	the place name as my Cooke ancestors lived there from the second half of the 17th century. There was a Cooke - Beale connection when Anne Cooke daughter of John Cooke & Ellen Gibbs , of Great Swifts married Richard Beale on 18 March 1741. Ann, a daughter of John Cooke and Ellen, his wife, married on 18th March 1741/2, Richard Beale of Biddensden, Esq. which Richard was born 19 October 1717 and died 6 November 1786. Anne died 6 December 1761...'. John Cooke's will is available from the National Archives website (for a fee): One of John Cooke's sons was a Sheriff of Kent in 1745 – see ' Sheriffs in the time of King George II '. (All sources: 9 Dec 2012.) 'Ellen' and 'Anne' have been added to the first names, and BEALE and GIBBS to the surnames.]

COUCHMAN William I Mary I Mary II William II Edward Elizabeth	253	Here lies interred William COUCHMAN of this Parish, clothier who died September 12th 1703. Also, Mary, his wife, daughter of Robert GIBBON of Beckley Sx., who died January 22nd 1723/24 aged 73 years. She had issue 2 sons and 2 daughters Viz:--Mary, wife of Walter CLOAKE of Hawkhurst, who died January 21st 1735 aged 50 years. William, who died March 22nd 1738/39, aged 52 years. Edward, buried April 10th 1691. Elizabeth Buried September 28th 1689 who died young. All of whom are here likewise deposited near their parents.	'Tarbutt lecture p 46' is written below '253' in the index. Also, after '1691', the date of Edward's death, there is a mark or note that may be a '7' (how old he was?), and similarly there is a note that may be a '5' after Elizabeth's date of death.	Tarbutt (p 46) refers to the COUCHMAN family being buried outside the church, in contrast to earlier practice for wealthier Cranbrook inhabitants who chose to be interred within the church. Also, I have added 'GIBBON' as an entry for this grave ('daughter of Robert GIBBON') although it is not listed in Mrs Owlett's index. Tarbutt's text for the inscription differs slightly: '...of Beckley in the County of Sussex...' [2nd lecture, p 46]

COURTHOPE Alexander I Elizabeth Alexander II	113	Here lieth the body of Alexander COURTHOPE Esq of Goddards Green in this Parish who was buried September 13th 1608. ? August on Register . Also The body of Elizabeth his wife who was buried January 19th before. (1607/08) They had issue 11 sons and 5 daughters. In the year 1765, this tomb being much decayed by time was repaired by Alexander COURTHOPE Esq of Sprivers in the Parish of Horsmonden a descendent in the fourth generation from Alexander and Elizabeth here interred.		1) From Edward Hasted, The History and Topographical Survey of the County of Kent: Volume 7 : 'At a small distance from the west end of the town is Goddards green, the antient [sic] residence of the family of Courthope. Alexander Courthope died possessed of a house and estate here in the year 1525, as did his grandson, of the same name, in 1608. He had issue eleven sons and five daughters, and lies buried under a tomb in Cranbroke church-yard.' 2) From the Geni site: 'The tomb of Alexander Courthope, who died in 1608, is still to be seen in the churchyard at Cranbrook, and the worn figures of his sixteen children can faintly be discerned upon it. His grandson Peter, as a portrait of the Parliament of the Civil War, purchased the estate of Danning, near Hurstpierpoint in Sussex, confiscated from a Royalist nobleman, and his descendants under the name of Campion live there still.' Matt 5. v 7. (continued next column)	Also To the Memory of Anne Frances Mary, the beloved and only daughter of Thomas and Mary Cramer ROBERTS who died June 13th 1846 aged 21 years. In life and in death she adorned the doctrine of God her Saviour, and she being dead yet speaketh. And now Lord what wait I for. Truly my hope is in Thee. ~~~~~ Mrs Owlett wrote '1869' above the date of '1872' for the death of Mary. '	The phrase 'a deeply deplored husband' is an example of how the Victorians used the word 'deplored' to mean 'lamented'. It appears on other Victorian gravestones with this same meaning. The inscription is also quoted by Tarbutt, Second Lecture, p 78. He described the first part of it (from 'Sacred' through 'Verona') as being on the south side of the tomb. The section 'Sacred to the memory of Mary' is on the west side.' The inscription for the daughter, Anne Frances Mary, is on the north side. Tarbutt describes the Cramer Roberts tomb as 'one of the best, if not very best monument in either the new or old burying ground.' Thomas Cramer Roberts was the son of the Rev. John Cramer Roberts. Note that 'Cramer-Roberts' is hyphenated in the index, but not in the inscription.	66

April 10,' and in Latin but translated by Tarbutt: 'A good man, Desirable to emulate for his laudable examples of piety and beneficence.]' [2nd lecture, page 54] According to a link on the Fadedgenes website, John married ELLEN, surname unknown. He was 'born Abt 1674 in Harefield (Middx)' An interesting source, 'Letters from Home', supplies Ellen's maiden name, 'Gibbs'. The site shows a letter written in the early 1800s concerning the tenancy of a farm. A website visitor read the letter and provided the following information: 'By sheer chance I came across your note on a letter written to Richard Beale at River Hall Biddenden by a Mr Austen of Swifts in Cranbrook. I recognized	the place name as my Cooke ancestors lived there from the second half of the 17th century. There was a Cooke - Beale connection when Anne Cooke daughter of John Cooke & Ellen Gibbs, of Great Swifts married Richard Beale on 18 March 1741. Ann, a daughter of John Cooke and Ellen, his wife, married on 18th March 1741/2, Richard Beale of Biddensden, Esq. which Richard was born 19 October 1717 and died 6 November 1786. Anne died 6 December 1761...'. John Cooke's will is available from the National Archives website (for a fee): One of John Cooke's sons was a Sheriff of Kent in 1745 – see 'Sheriffs in the time of King George II'. JAN Rosa Agha Hosein	664	Sacred to the Memory of Rosa, daughter of Mohan Lal now Agha Hosein JAN of the City of Delhi. Born at Cabool and Died at Hazelden House June 13th 1857 aged 15 years 4 months. (In Registers as Rosa PERRY). Rev 7 vv 9&10 quoted. Christ is all and in all. Col 3 v 11.	Mrs Owlett did not write out the verses from Revelations 7: 9-10 quoted in the inscription. For the record, they are as follows, from the King James Version (KJV): 9. After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. [The Bible Gateway , 28/12/2012]	Rosa was born in Kabul in 1842 where her Kashmiri father, Mohan Lal, was serving as an intelligence agent and negotiator for the British during the first Afghan War (1839-1842). She came to Cranbrook to study at the Misses Stable's school. (Tarbutt, p 89). In Prof. Hari Ram Gupta's 1940 book about Mohan Lal's life, he states that Lal's daughter was under the guardianship of Sir Charles Trevelyan and that her upkeep cost Lal up to £100 – £150/year. Jawarahal Nehru, who became the first Prime Minister of India, wrote in his 'Preface' to Gupta's book that he would to have liked to know more about Lal's personal life: '...I should like to know what happened to his daughter who was sent to England for her education.' LAL Rosa Mohan	664	Sacred to the Memory of Rosa, daughter of Mohan Lal now Agha Hosein JAN of the City of Delhi. Born at Cabool and Died at Hazelden House June 13th 1857 aged 15 years 4 months. (In Registers as Rosa PERRY). Rev 7 vv 9&10 quoted. Christ is all and in all. Col 3 v 11.	Mrs Owlett did not write out the verses from Revelations 7: 9-10 quoted in the inscription. For the record, they are as follows, from the King James Version (KJV): 9. After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. [The Bible Gateway , 28/12/2012]	Rosa was born in Kabul in 1842 where her Kashmiri father, Mohan Lal, was serving as an intelligence agent and negotiator for the British during the first Afghan War (1839-1842). She came to Cranbrook to study at the Misses Stable's school. (Tarbutt, p 89). In Prof. Hari Ram Gupta's 1940 book about Mohan Lal's life, he states that Lal's daughter was under the guardianship of Sir Charles Trevelyan and that her upkeep cost Lal up to £100 – £150/year. Jawarahal Nehru, who became the first Prime Minister of India, wrote in his 'Preface' to Gupta's book that he would to have liked to know more about Lal's personal life: '...I should like to know what happened to his daughter who was sent to England for her education.' LEIGH Margaret Henry	23	In Memory of Margaret wife of Henry BLIGH of this Parish who departed this life November 30th 1701 aged 80 years.	(See 39). (Henry LEIGH Sadler and Margaret WOOLLETT Married Sep 2 1748 By Licence. Margaret LEIGH, Wife of Henry, Sadler buried Dec 6 1764.)	1) 'See entry 39' --relates to the LEIGHs. Mrs Owlett seems to be comparing dates and names, and is puzzled by some discrepancy. Possibly whether 'BLIGH' is really 'LEIGH'? 2) 'BLIGH' was omitted on the original index, so I have inserted it into the 'B' section of the spreadsheet. To cover discrepancies, grave 23 is listed under both 'Bligh' and 'Leigh', as well as WOOLLETT, Margaret. Given the date of death, it is probable that the marker had deteriorated and could not easily be read.

OLLIVE Thomas	335	Beneath, in perfect hope of the resurrection to Eternal Life, rest the remains of Thomas OLLIVE (many years an inhabitant of this TOWN) who after a life of exemplary piety and usefulness wholly relying on the full and free salvation by Jesus Christ terminated his earthly Pilgrimage on June 29th 1829 aged 76 years. Happy are they whose Christian course is run Their flesh beneath the Ground may decay Yet do they -- The crown of life is won And their Glad Spirits rise to endless day.		According to ' A History of Cranbrook: from the earliest times to 1914 ' by Peter Allen: '... Thomas Ollive, one of two clockmaker brothers born in Lewes, whose clocks are still to be found locally. Ollive had come to Cranbrook in 1778, bringing with him his sister Elizabeth, estranged wife of the great radical writer Tom Paine; when she died in 1808 it seems that it was Ollive who, in the Maidstone Journal announcement of the death, alleged Paine's 'brutal behaviour' towards her.' (p81) The book cover features a photo of a clock made by Thomas Ollive.

Leaving a widow and 6 children.	(Samuel OYLER, widower, Farmer and Ann Elizabeth WESTON, spinster, d of William WESTON, farmer, Married May 27th 1847.) Mrs Owlett has written '5' above the '3' in 'January 23 1841' as the date of death for Susannah.	Mary? Caroline? Mrs Owlett draws attention to the deaths of 1) Mary Oyler at aged 4 yrs 6 month in 1827 and 2) Caroline Oyler, aged 4, buried April 1822. Whether she thought they might be the same child is not clear, and it should be noted that there were 5 years between the two deaths, if the inscription has been correctly copied. Some confusion may arise from the fact that Susannah is described as leaving two children, including one named 'Mary', when she died in 1841. The daughter Mary who died in 1827 obviously predeceased her mother.	384

OYLER Samuel Jane	607	In Memory of Samuel OYLER, late of Goddards Green, who died September XXVI MDCCCCI aged LXXXIV years. (To be 84 years would make the year 1910). The Lord reigneth. Also of Jane, his wife, who died April IX MDCCTIVIII. (Jane was alive aged 48 in 1871.) Interred at Eastbourne.		September XXVI MDCCCCI = September 26, 1901 (not 1910). LXXIV years = 84 years. For Jane: Date of death is April 9, but 'MDCCCTIVIII' is not a recognizable number in Roman numerals. The website Genes Reunited lists a 'Jane Oyler' who died in Eastbourne in 1898, which in Roman numerals is 'MDCCCXCVIII'. Ancestry.com also gives 1898 as the date of her death in Eastbourne, stating that she was 78 years old. Her estimated date of birth is given as 'abt 1820'. In the 1891 Census, her age is given as '68'. The Weald website estimates her birth year as 1825. All the records indicate she was born in Brookham or Brockham, Surrey, so I presume they all refer to the same person. [various dates] There are also links to information about the extended Oyler Family on this site [11 Feb 2013]

After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. [The Bible Gateway , 28/12/2012]	Rosa was born in Kabul in 1842 where her Kashmiri father, Mohan Lal, was serving as an intelligence agent and negotiator for the British during the first Afghan War (1839-1842). She came to Cranbrook to study at the Misses Stable's school. (Tarbutt, p 89). In Prof. Hari Ram Gupta's 1940 book about Mohan Lal's life, he states that Lal's daughter was under the guardianship of Sir Charles Trevelyan and that her upkeep cost Lal up to £100 – £150/year. Jawarahal Nehru, who became the first Prime Minister of India, wrote in his 'Preface' to Gupta's book that he would to have liked to know more about Lal's personal life: '...I should like to know what happened to his daughter who was sent to England for her education.' Truly my hope is in Thee.	Mrs Owlett wrote '1869' above the date of '1872' for the death of Mary. '	The phrase 'a deeply deplored husband' is an example of how the Victorians used the word 'deplored' to mean 'lamented'. It appears on other Victorian gravestones with this same meaning. The inscription is also quoted by Tarbutt, Second Lecture, p 78. He described the first part of it (from 'Sacred' through 'Verona') as being on the south side of the tomb. The section 'Sacred to the memory of Mary' is on the west side.' The inscription for the daughter, Anne Frances Mary, is on the north side. Tarbutt describes the Cramer Roberts tomb as 'one of the best, if not very best monument in either the new or old burying ground.' Thomas Cramer Roberts was the son of the Rev. John Cramer Roberts. Note that 'Cramer-Roberts' is hyphenated in the index, but not in the inscription.	66

WESTON Jane John Wilsley William Frederick Bowles	81	Here lieth the body of Jane. In loving memory of John Willsley WESTON, born at Willsley House August 22nd 1841 and died January 22nd 1913. Interred in Kensal Green Cemetery London. Mark him to be numbered with the Saints in Glory Everlasting. Top In a vault near this Tomb is deposited the remains of William WESTON Gentleman of Upper Willsly [sic] in this Parish departed this life March 13th 1815 aged 56 years. Also Frederick Bowles WESTON the younger son who died March 2nd 1816 aged 15 years.		Tarbutt: 'On the second tomb the family arms on the top, also an inscription to the memory of William Weston, Gent., who died in 1815....On the south side of this tomb, is only one line of an inscription, "Here lieth the body of Jane". This was re-cut not many years since. I presume the reason for leaving it in that unfinished state, was the original had so far perished that no more of the inscription could be deciphered. It is however in memory of Jane, a daughter of Mr. John Weston, who died in May 1755.' (2nd lecture, p 49)
WESTON Elizabeth William	427	To the Memory of Susannah, wife of Samuel OYLER of this Parish and whose earthly remains are here deposited in a ----- Grave, who died January 23 1841 aged 46 years. Leaving issue 2 children Viz: - Samuel and Mary. Also of Mary, daughter of the above named Samuel and Susannah OYLER who died April 19 1827 aged 4 years 6 months. (Caroline OYLER, of Sandhurst, aged 4, buried April 24th 1822.) Also of the above named Samuel OYLER who died July 29th 1864 aged 76 years. Leaving a widow and 6 children.	(Samuel OYLER, widower, Farmer and Ann Elizabeth WESTON, spinster, d of William WESTON, farmer, Married May 27th 1847.) Mrs Owlett has written '5' above the '3' in 'January 23 1841' as the date of death for Susannah.	Mary? Caroline? Mrs Owlett draws attention to the deaths of 1) Mary Oyler at aged 4 yrs 6 month in 1827 and 2) Caroline Oyler, aged 4, buried April 1822. Whether she thought they might be the same child is not clear, and it should be noted that there were 5 years between the two deaths, if the inscription has been correctly copied. Some confusion may arise from the fact that Susannah is described as leaving two children, including one named 'Mary', when she died in 1841. The daughter Mary who died in 1827 obviously predeceased her mother.	384

WESTON William Beale	744	Sacred to the Memory of William Beale WESTON of Willesley House, who died April 29th 1837 aged 47 years. Leaving a widow and 8 children to lament their loss. Saintly sleep dear saint in Jesus. Thou with us shall wake from death. Hold he cannot though he Seize us. We his power defy by death.		There may be errors in Mrs Owlett's transcription of the first ('Saintly sleep ...') and last lines ('we his power defy by death') perhaps because of difficulty reading the text. The quotation is attributed to poet and hymn-writer, Joseph Hart (1712-1768). According to one online source (see p 190), it should read "Sweetly sleep, dear saint, in Jesus; thou with us shalt wake from death; Hold he cannot, though he seize us: we his power defy by faith!" -- The use of 'faith' instead of 'death' makes more sense in the context. O learn from me in faith and joy Ere earthly joys and flowers To fix the eye on Heaven above And say they will be yours. O set your heart on better things And those on earth that bloom. The fairest earthly flower that springs Will fade in earthly Tomb.		Should the third to the last line begin with 'Than those...' rather than 'And those...'? William Carus Wilson quotes these lines using 'than' in an account of advice he gave to a consumptive gypsy girl in his The friendly visitor: published in monthly numbers, during the year 1848. Vol. XXX. [7 Dec 2012—page 186].

WOOLLET Margaret	23	In Memory of Margaret, wife of Henry BLIGH of this Parish, who departed this life November 30th 1701 aged 80 years .	(See 39) (Henry LEIGH, Sadler, and Margaret WOOLLET Married Sep 2 1748 by Licence. Margaret LEIGH, wife of Henry, Sadler, Buried Dec 6 1764.	1) 'See entry 39' --relates to the LEIGHs. Mrs Owlett seems to be comparing dates and names, and is puzzled by some discrepancy. Possibly whether 'BLIGH' is really 'LEIGH'? 2) 'BLIGH' was omitted on the original index, so I have inserted it into the 'B' section of the spreadsheet. To cover discrepancies, grave 23 is listed under both 'Bligh' and 'Leigh', as well as WOOLLETT, Margaret. Given the date of death, it is probable that the marker had deteriorated and could not easily be read..
